

There is something special about working at the Travel Industry Council of Ontario. We are a small collegial group of individuals who are dedicated and enthusiastic about achieving the Vision, Mission and Values of TICO while administering and enforcing the consumer protection legislation of the Ontario Travel Industry Act, 2002 and Ontario Regulation 26/05 on behalf of the Ontario Government.

Our team thrives on a culture that is motivational and supportive and is also welcoming to new people and new ideas. TICO employees enjoy a benefits plan, pension plan, further professional development opportunities as well as the opportunity to work with a passionate team on a number of Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives.

Check out the job postings below. If you don't see an opportunity posted, we would still be interested in hearing from you. Send us your resume to tico@tico.ca
