

The Administrative Agreement between the Minister of Consumer Services and the Travel Industry Council of Ontario (TICO) sets out the matters that the Minister considers necessary for delegating the administration of the Travel Industry Act, 2002 (Act) to TICO. The Agreement clarifies the roles, duties and responsibilities of the Minister and TICO in relation to the administration of the Act. It also clarifies the administrative, financial, auditing, accountability, legislative and regulatory development, and working relationships between the parties.

- Administrative Agreement | PDF